That is everyone except the Monroe and Langston families. It s only been a short year since Mary Monroe lost her battle with cancer, and her daughter-in-law, Rose, is desperately trying to bring the holiday spirit back to the families. Welcome back to Whistle Creek, a place where tragedy brings love and understanding to a family struggling to move forward. A small log cabin turns a mother s dream into reality for the family she left behind. And a stranger can bring hope to the one man who thought he d never love again. Join the Monroes, the Langstons, and the entire town as they celebrate a Whistle Creek Christmas-- Southern style. May the sunshine always warm your heart. May the rain always wash away your troubles. And may you always have family to catch you and lift you back up. --Millie Hughes.
