By Gary R Lowell

Full Moon Publishing, LLC, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This story is set in Fundao, Portugal, gateway to Europe s most productive tungsten mine. It is a story of an innocent girl thrust into prostitution amidst the intrigues of British and German spy rings infesting neutral Portugal during the early 1940 s. This was a dark and turbulent period in which tiny, defenseless Portugal covered beneath the ominous shadows of occupation by Nazi Germany and even Franco s fascist Spain. Beneath the veneer of humor, sex and murder in this story, lies the stark reality that Germany could not achieve its goal of European domination without the iron and tungsten of neutral Sweden and Portugal. These necessary wartime commodities were purchased with gold looted from Europe s central banks by the ever resourceful Nazis. After the fall of France in 1940, only the grit and determination of the British spies stood in opposition to Hitler s insidious and evil visions for Portugal.
