Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Entertaining a large group of children in a classroom setting is no easy task! Teachers, room parents, and scout leaders constantly struggle with limited time and resources while trying to capture the imagination of today's elementary school kids. Author and illustrator Marnie Ann Pacino has come to the rescue with her second Cool Party, Mom! book, The Classroom Edition. Written with volunteers and educators in mind, The Classroom Edition is packed with school-friendly games and activities; inexpensive craft projects; and easy holiday snacks ideas. Along the way, you'll find entertaining trivia, fun facts, and useful tips to help you plan your classroom celebrations! The Classroom Edition is organized like a school calendar, starting with the first day of September and covering every major holiday of the school year with plenty of fun days in between! When is National Kazoo Day? How do they celebrate Christmas in Greenland? Can you really balance an egg on its end during an equinox? Why should I remember to Never Eat Soggy Waffles? Where did April...
