

A Camellia, My Love (Paperback)

By Jeramie Dean Melvin

Neely Worldwide Publishing, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . When Mary Brookes learns the past two months of her life have been a deception, her heart, hopes, and dreams are all shattered once again. She sinks into a depression from which, it seems, she will never recover. Until she meets James Davenport. James, the owner of the most popular restaurant in town, sweeps Mary off her feet. He shows her the bright side of life, and for the first time in years, she is truly happy. The happiness does not last for very long, as, due to her painful past, Mary's tendency to distrust automatically leads her to jump to conclusions when she is led to believe that James is not the type of man she has come to know. She learns the truth at last, only to discover that the chance to make amends is forever out of her reach. A story of a broken heart learning to love and trust again, A Camellia, My Love demonstrates how sacrificing true love is not worth what would be considered a frivolous thing, should the unthinkable ever happen.
