What means that gathering of all those happy subjects, their shining faces turned to one object, their counten auces burning with expectation? They are listening to their Lord and Master. He is revealing to them His newest plan. He tells them how He now expects them to be as brave and valiant as in times past when they were all arrayed against a terrible opposing power which was cast out from their presence and sent forth from justice a vagabond. But this is not to be a battle, and yet the same courage and qualifications are required. I will that my new domain be inhabited, He says, and have chosen that you, my. Children, should go and perform the work which I have arranged, that you may have rejoicing in glorifying me and my works. See there below you - I give you view - is your future home. You see it is a new condition and requires a change in your being. This...
