Blackside Publishing, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The haunting poetry of The Ghosts of Babylon is as near to the crucible of war as you can get without wearing Kevlar and camouflage. Every war triggers the question--what s war like? The Ghosts of Babylon offers eyewitness accounts of warriors who lost their innocence dueling in the sands of the Iraqi inferno or fighting in the chilling Afghan mountains or on the khaki-colored plains. Wounds enshrouded under the bandages of headlines and sound bites will never bridge the gap between soldier and civilian. Every war triggers the question--what s war like? From ancient times to present day, war poetry telegraphs a dispatch across the ages about the universal experiences of war--brotherhood and bereavement, duty and disillusionment, and heroism and horror. No history mirrors the brutal realities and emotions of armed conflict than the shock of war erupting from the warrior poet...
