Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Old Buckeye Days Dear Old Buckeye Days Pitched in a cadence echoing Sweetly, sadly, soft and low, In my heart a song is ringing Of the dear old long ago; As I croon it over softly, Gladly hum it o er and o er, Ah! it brings to me the fragrance Of those youthful days of yore! Oft I picture the old homestead, Nestled snug among the hills, Where my youth was spent in gladness, And I catch the old, old thrills Of those days of boyhood pleasure, - Dear old days of long ago, - With their fragrant summer blossoms And their winter s thrilling snow. Then there comes the song of robins, And the scent of orchard trees; Smell of apple buds and blossoms, And the hum of honey bees! And my happy heart brims over With its olden youthful glee As those joys of distant childhood Come a-trooping back to me! Now I catch, across the meadow, The sweet scent of clover bloom Like the echoing of music Of an old familiar...
