Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Imagine turning up to play your chosen sport every week - tennis, golf, football - it matters not - knowing that barring a miracle you are going to get beaten. How long do you think you could put up with the frustration? A month, a year? How about over three years? Between March 2006 and October 2009, Grantham Hockey Club Men s 1st XI went 1,309 days - 63 matches - without a league victory. With the odds, the weather and even their location stacked against them, this is the true story of how a dreary Lincolnshire market town s hockey team went from being at the bottom of a very big pile to making local headlines and even (allegedly) appearing in the News of the World. From broken ankles and damaged ligaments to battling the elements, their location and underlying social issues, this book details a remarkable period in a small club s history, reliving Grantham s journey from despair and misery to league success and a future as bright as the red shirts in which they play. John Pennington first played for Grantham in 2007, was club chairman between 2009 and 2011 and has been on the club s committee since 2008. An experienced sports journalist, this is his third book. 50 of revenue from the book will go back into the club - supporting grass roots hockey and the local area Praise for 1,309 Days Later: Another entertaining read from John! It made me laugh a few times and I will be telling all hockey cub members to read it! - Oli Anyone at the club who doesn t read this is missing out, and...
