Arcadia Publishing Library Editions, 1998. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In the first photographic history of Gloucester, Rhode Island, Chepachet native Edna Whitaker Kent presents a remarkable collection of over 200 historic photographs never before available to the public. The many views of Gloucester homes, streets, mills, farms, schools, people, and churches have been compiled from private collections to be published for the first time. The historic villages of Harmony, East Gloucester, Spring Grove, Cherry Valley, West Gloucester, Hawkins Village, Clarkville, Williams Mills, and Chepachet are all represented in this volume, which spans the period of time from 1826 to 1992. Two unique historical events are comprehensively illustrated: Dorr s Rebellion--during which two duly-elected Rhode Island governors vied for power--and the tragic shooting of one of North America s first elephants at Chepachet Bridge. In addition, Gloucester, Rhode Island depicts the community s proud history of legendary pageants, gatherings, Old Home Days, and parades, which have attracted visitors to the region for many years.
