Not illustrated. 1907 Excerpt: .They must be well aware that they have made many mistakes: they can not be even sure that, had they known what is now so clear to them, that the late disaster might have been altogether averted: and to realize that in spite of all their mistakes and shortcomings, their constituents, the druggists of the country, have not even breathed a word of censure, to say nothing of attempting to hold them responsible for the failure of their cause--we say, it is a cause for special comment, and must fill the hearts of these officials with unspeakable delight. A body of men so generous, so loyal to their leaders, so calm under defeat, so hopeful under what appears an utter rout, as the members of the N. A. R. D. have thus shown themselves to be. can not fail at last to win in any enterprise in which they may engage. Conquer they must, when their cause it is just, And this is their motto: In Cod is our trust. SCARCITY OF DRUG CLERKS. Much has been written in the drug journals, recently, about the scarcity of drug clerks, and that the trouble is a genuine and a general one is evident from the complaints heard in the trade from all parts of the country. But is there a greater scarcity of drug clerks than there is of other kinds of help? We are in the midst of the most prosperous era in the history of...
