By John Southerden Burn

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 216 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. Excerpt from The Star Chamber: Notices of the Court and Its Proceedings; With a Few Additional Notes of the High Commission The Court of Star Chamber and that of the High Commission having for upwards of a century held a most arbitrary and unconstitutional control in England, it has been thought useful to concentrate some of the scattered notices of these Courts and of the variety of the cases entertained. Some account of the Court of High Commission has already been published, the following pages therefore will be devoted to the Star Chamber. Rush worth says, there is little mention made of the Star Chamber Court, either in reports or treatises of the Law, except now and then, dispersedly in some one or two causes in an age. But there are now in the British Museum, at the Rolls, and in the Bodleian and Cambridge University Libraries, several volumes of Star Chamber cases, from which the following pages have been chiefly compiled, and there are at the Rolls Record Office many hundreds of bundles of proceedings which were for many years entombed at..
