Abou Shar, Persia, Nov. 24, 1886. My Dear Schubert. Having just finished a bout of three games of chess with a Persian gentleman, former Minister to the Court of St. James from The Land of the Lion and the Sun, who is reputed the best player in Bushire; and having, in the three games played within two days, come off one game better than second best; I beg leave to greet my old friends of the Club, and other friends whom I may reach through you, with the assurance that while absent I often recall with pride and pleasure our happy associations with each other in the years gone by, and to further assure them that I shall endeavor to bring no discredit upon the Club while abroad. The three encounters with this lion of Abou Shar were much above my average play, being with an antagonist whose play is careful and studious. The game I lost was a K B Gambit, with my antagonist playing B--K Kt 2 in the defense. I sacrificing the Queen for two minor pieces in the endeavor to force the attack. The two I won were both Evans s Gambit Declined, I playing, in the defense, Q--Kt 4 on the sixth move. While in Egypt, on the way out, I saw in the Bulak Museum an incomplete set of ivory chess-men taken from the tomb of King Autep at...
