By Stephen E Dowell

Pilgrimage Road Press, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .He was Jerry Falwell s first ministry mentor. He became a leader in the largest organization of independent Baptists in the world. His preaching ministry took him to six continents. He left behind a legacy of churches, colleges-and multiplied thousands of faithful followers of Jesus Christ. Cry Aloud, Spare Not: The Story of W. E. Dowell explores the life of an extraordinary leader, from his humble Texas roots, to his first ministry experiences during the depths of The Great Depression, to his work as a broadcaster and early televangelist, to his leadership of the largest church in the State of Missouri. This book also examines Dowell s relationship with the controversial and enigmatic Texas preacher, J. Frank Norris. Norris was the original independent Baptist and the pastor of the nation s first mega-church, but he had a dark side, one that Dowell ultimately witnessed firsthand. Dowell s decision to oppose and break with Norris demonstrated Dowell s character and courage as an authentic servant-leader. Dowell was fearless in the controversial stands he took on the moral and political issues of his...
