Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from President s Address to the Council of the New-England Historic Genealogical Society: 14 January, 1889 AT the outset of a new departure in the career of our Society a review of the main events in our progress to this time would seem to be desirable even for those who have been intimately concerned in its management hitherto, and doubly proper for those of us who now for the first time assume a share of the responsibility of directing its affairs. I shall not therefore apologize for calling your attention to the pecuniary and numerical growth and condition of this institution before I proceed to point out the changes which have been effected in our organization by the adoption of a new code of by-laws, and the steps which, in pursuance of my official duty, I feel constrained to recommend to you as necessary to be taken by this board in order to execute the will of the Society as expressed in the new code. On this head, however, I shall be brief. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
