When it is time for souls to meet, there is nothing on earth that can prevent it from happening. That's what Emma Finch realizes after her first encounter with Luke Myers. A confirmed bachelor and undercover cop, Luke has made his job his life. Since his first love died tragically in a car accident, Luke hasn't been seriously interested in anyone . until he meets Emma. Emma is navigating life after her husband of 24 years dies suddenly. Her days as a middle school guidance counselor are filled with hormonal teenagers, while her nights are interrupted by a dream stuck on repeat. A chance meeting with the mystifying detective at a Memorial Day barbeque leaves Emma staring into the same grey eyes that haunt her slumber night after night. She knows her dream will unlock a mystery, and that it's somehow tied to the tattooed, pierced law-enforcer. As Emma and Luke's beautiful love story develops, Emma's dreams become more frequent and frightening. She's completely convinced that the enigmatic couple she dreams about each night shares an undeniable connection to Luke and his current undercover assignment. Emma and Luke's bond is so powerful, they both wonder if maybe they've met before. What they learn is that time has a wonderful way of showing them what really matters, and that the universe works in mysterious ways.
