Excerpt from Plays, Acting, and Music The book is intended to form part of a series, on which I have been engaged for many years. I am gradually working my way towards the concrete expression of a theory, or system of aesthetics, of all the arts. In my book on The Symbolist Movement in Literature I made a first attempt to deal in this way with literature; other volumes, now in preparation, are to follow. The present volume deals mainly with the stage, and, secondarily, with music it is to be followed by a volume called Studies in the Seven Arts, in which music will be dealt with in greater detail, side by side with painting, sculpture, architecture, handicraft, dancing, and the various arts of the stage. And, as life too is a form of art, and the visible world the chief storehouse of beauty, I try to indulge my curiosity by the study of places and of people. a book on Cities is now in the press, and a book of imaginary portraits is to follow, under the title of Spiritual Adventures.
