

Red Goodwin

By John Wilson

Ronsdale Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Red Goodwin, John Wilson, John Wilson has created a compelling story based on the folk hero, Albert 'Ginger' Goodwin, also known as 'Red' Goodwin from the colour of his hair and his radical social ideas. Goodwin was originally a miner from the north of England, who came to Canada and took up the cause of the working man during the Trail smelter strike and at the coal mines on Vancouver Island. His ideas were eventually considered so dangerous that a special constable was hired to hunt him down in the forest near Cumberland. Wilson tells the story of a young boy, Will Ryan, sent out from England after his father was killed in WW I, to live with his uncle, a mine manager, at Cumberland. Through a chance meeting in the forest with Red Goodwin, young Will has all his ideas turned upside down, especially when he sees first-hand how the miners are treated in the community and at the pit face. He becomes friends with a Chinese boy who introduces him to the racism in Canada, where 'Chinks' are seen as expendable. Will is also deeply smitten by a beautiful Scottish...
