Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Struggle is the conclusion of a 3 part series from the books, Sin Committed by Simple Confusion, and Catastrophic Collision. Struggle is about what happen after Selig s spiritual and emotional dysfunction is realized. After taking a hard 42 month look at himself, he continues his testimony to others with real, raw warnings. Selig has put the writing on the wall for others that may follow in his footsteps. People, who have been conditioned to think they are not ready for the next step in their lives, struggle. People, who are suffering from dealing with loss of relationships, struggle. After a 42 month emotional purging; Selig has left his true, honest facts, by his opinion how and why he struggled in relationships. Others may share the same reason, because of their lack of confidence. Going back to the Church of his childhood consistently after 35 years, life didn t get easier. Constant badgering by conscious or ego didn t make life easier. The warnings of caution placed inside this book are to be road blocks and detours for others heading down the same road of struggle. Our behavior consists of our social, emotional and/or spiritual conditioning, rooted within your conscious. This book Struggle attempts to personally challenge you, to turn from unhealthy behavior that destroys intimate relationships. Or turn from even attempting to engage in a relationship with anybody but Christ, knowing you are not ready for a Godly commitment. To Men: Read about the false responsibility by penetration. This responsibility begins, because somebody wants something by measurement of 2 things. Somebody wants something by measurement of desire. Somebody wants something by measurement of positioning. Warning: He, who participates in the ungodly...
