Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The Asian elephant is a beautiful creation. It looks majestic and provides an interesting and absorbing sight to all. Its intelligence is something unique. But at times it can be dangerous causing damage to life and property. It is an enjoyable sight to watch during festivals and on occasions several caparisoned elephants present a feast for the eyes. We will refer to some of the episodes of this grand animal. The elephant has its own feelings of prestige. There are cases where an elephant usually given the privilege of carrying the deity, if denied the chance for some reason, attacks the privileged elephant. It charges a few other elephants also and all of them run in panic .The victim usually is the mahout and rarely a pedestrian or any other. Generally the mahout loves the elephant and wins its love. But there are mahouts who ill-treat the elephants and run the risk of being trampled and attacked in revenge. During a local temple festival the elephant carrying the deity and two persons on its back became panicky. It charged the two elephants standing on either side. In the impact one of them fell on its back with four legs up. The persons on top managed to jump out and run. But the persons on top of the charging elephant had a nightmarish experience. The elephant shook its body severely to dislodge them. The men firmly held on to the rope around the neck and on the chain around it. But one of them slipped and fell down. The elephant turned towards him. The mahout on seeing this tried to save him. The elephant...
