Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Thirty-Ninth Annual Catalogue of the North Georgia Agricultural College (Department of the University of Georgia) At Dahlonega, Georgia, 1910-1911: Announcements for 1911-1912 The College campus and farm consists of forty acres, beautifully located and well situated for college purposes. The main college building is located on a high knoll overlooking the town. In front is a pretty lawn gently sloping toward the center of town. In the rear are located the drill grounds, the athletic field, and the college farm, all conveniently situated, and afford ample space for the purposes for which they are used. The main building which stands on the exact site of the Old United States mint, contains twelve lecture rooms and offices, the college chapel, armory, and the two literary society halls. Each of these contains suitable furniture and apparatus. In the basement are located the Business Department, the Office and orderly room of the Military Department. On the first floor are the Departments of English, History, Ancient Languages, Pure Mathematics, and French and Art. To the right of the main building is located Bostwick Hall, the gift of Mr. J. H. Bostwick of New York. This building was completed in 1899. On the first floor are the President's Office, the department of Applied Mathematics, and the Library. On the second floor are located the departments of Science and of Agriculture together with their laboratories. Next beyond Bostwick Hall is situated what is known as the Girls Dormitory which contains the Office of the Superintendent of Barracks and comfortably furnished rooms for about fifty students.
