The brakes were creaking, the trucks jerking, and the short train was slowing up at a dismal-looking station on the right. Gordon Hartley hastily took down his valise, umbrella, and light overcoat from the rack above his seat and proceeded to change his smoking-cap for his hat. I didn t know we were so near, he apologized to the genial conductor, who had now advanced to him. I thought Lowndesville was a considerable place, but I don t see a single residence. The town lies a mile to the west, the man explained. A little bobtail, one-horse street-car runs down here to take passengers up to the Square. Spite work, sir - spite work! When our road was being run through, and all other places on the line granted free right of way, Lowndesville wouldn t stir a peg.
