Upper Room Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 218 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Loving the World with God invites readers to continue their walk with Jesus long after their Walk to Emmaus or Chrysalis Flight. Grounded in the example of Jesus and illustrated through the stories and experiences of Emmaus pilgrims, Loving the World with God explores not only the what of serving others but also takes us into the deeper waters of why and how to live as the hands and feet of Christ. It guides readers who are seeking to follow God's will, offering ways that will nourish the heart along with making the world a better place. Based on the premise that the God who so loved and still loves the world invites us to follow Jesus and love the world too, each chapter concludes with an invitation for reflection, prayer, and action. Combining solid biblical exploration, insightful theological substance, and practical real-life illustrations, this easy-to-read book provides a thoughtful and helpful resource for disciples who long to take their faith to the next level and love.
