Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Pour prendre contact avec les phares, le tertre du Rosedo, dans l'île de Brehat, est une assiette incomparable. Le cercle d'horizon qu'on embrasse de ce tertre n'est pas seulement un des plus vastes qui soient, c'en est aussi un des plus mouvementés. Même par temps calme, aux traînées de bile qui strient la mer, aux remous qui tremblent sur les hauts-fonds, à la rapidité des courants, et plus encore à ces déchirures violentes du littoral, à ces longues chaînes d'écueils qui crevent de tous côtés la nappe marine et qui sont comme les défenses avancées de la terre vers le large, on sent une hostilité latente, l'antagonisme mystérieux de deux éléments. Vainement on chercherait là ces grandes zones mitoyennes de sable ou de tanguie qui forment ailleurs la transition, le moelleux tapis de rencontre entre la mer et la terre. Les deux éléments sont restés aux prises. La mer a fini par l'emporter; mais sa victoire est encore incomplète, et le conflit se prolonge sourdement.
