Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .How far will one woman go for revenge? October, 1655. Marie St. James is betrayed by her lover and hanged as a witch. When she returns as a restless spirit, she sets in motion a chain of events that will extend two-hundred years into the future. As the key characters reincarnate, they are forced to face the truth about the past and the wrath of a spirit that still lingers, waiting for justice to be served. Before Marie s spirit can be at peace, the characters must put the puzzle of the past together, piece by piece. Time is against them as Marie s original curse has placed restraints on their efforts. If they can beat the clock, Marie s soul can be put to rest. If they fail, the cycle must begin again, bringing the circle of characters together for another chance at putting the past, and a vengeful spirit, to rest.
