

Free to Love (Paperback)

By Kate McCann

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Brilliant and Moving Christian Romance Novella Who Sets the Rules For Love? Dawn Jasper may be gifted at helping others, but all she sees in herself is someone with a track record of disaster and heartache. She decides that everyone else would be better off if they weren't involved with her. While Dawn goes about running her Bed and Breakfast and trying to avoid emotional entanglements, Ryan Benning, a widower, and his two young sons move into town. The widower turns out to be the new town doctor and he desperately needs Dawn's help. Ryan is everything Dawn is not. He's open, friendly, and willing to reach out to others for help. While Dawn feels drawn to the stranger and wants to help him, she's afraid that opening herself up will just lead to yet another romantic disaster. With circumstances pushing them closer together, will Dawn have the courage to let Ryan in, or will she hold to her rules and keep all the emotional complications out of her life? This inspirational novella will warm your heart and show you the power...
